About improvement of anti-corruption training of the officials

In this article the author made an attempt to consider the current state of vocational training of public officials of the federal, regional and municipal levels participating within the powers in anti-corruption i.e. those who will organize and realize the relevant preventive activities (the staff of personnel divisions) and also other public officials fulfilling requirements of the anti-corruption legislation. On the basis of the existing positive experience of training in the sphere of counteraction to terrorism, the author developed the list of the directions, on which effective vocational training of employees of the federal, regional and municipal levels participating within the powers in anti-corruption is possible. The author offered updating of the current legislation in the part concerning the organization of vocational training of staff of federal organs of the executive authority, executive authorities of the territorial subjects of the Russian Federation and the local government bodies participating within the powers in anti-corruption.

Keywords: demand for credit, credits to individuals, economic growth, finance-growth nexus.
